

Launch of Pilot Guide for Volunteerism in Government Authorities

Federal Authority

July 2017

This document is for the Federal Authority for Government Human Resources and no part of it may be used or copied in any form or by any means outside the Federal Authority for Government Human Resources without a prior written approval.

"Our goal is to instill the love of giving, volunteerism and service of country as a supreme value in our organizations and as a fundamental principle in the lives of our children."

H.H. Sheikh Khalifa bin Zayed Al Nahyan
President of the State "May God preserve him"!

"Everyone has the potentials to make a real difference to those around him". Our environment where we live needs a lot of giving. and here comes the role of volunteerism. Volunteer an hour, a day or a week. Volunteer skillfully, efficiently or scientifically. Volunteer with some energy. Volunteer advice or consultation. Volunteer and make a difference in your society«

H.H. Sheikh Mohammed bin Rashid Al Maktoum
UAE Vice President and Prime Minister and Ruler of Dubai, May God protect him!

"Volunteerism is deemed as a major supporter of the development of the society and the advancement of its position where the roles are integrated, the efforts are joined together, the ideas converge to reflect the most meaningful meanings of cooperation and spirit of giving in favor of building both the human and country."

H.H. Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed Al Nahyan
Crown Prince of Abu Dhabi and Deputy Supreme Commander of UAE Armed Forces, May God protect him!

Concept of Volunteerism

- Community Responsibility and Volunteerism

Community Responsibility :Commitment of business owners to contribute to achieving the sustainable development by working with their employees, families and their local society to improve people's living standards in a way that serves both trade and development in the same time (Source: World Bank).

Concept of Volunteerism

Voluntary Work

- Every individual or collective effort aimed at achieving public benefit for free
(Source: Draft Law on Volunteerism.)
- General Volunteerism and Specialized Volunteerism
- Individual volunteerism and organizational volunteerism.

Goals of Volunteerism

At the society level

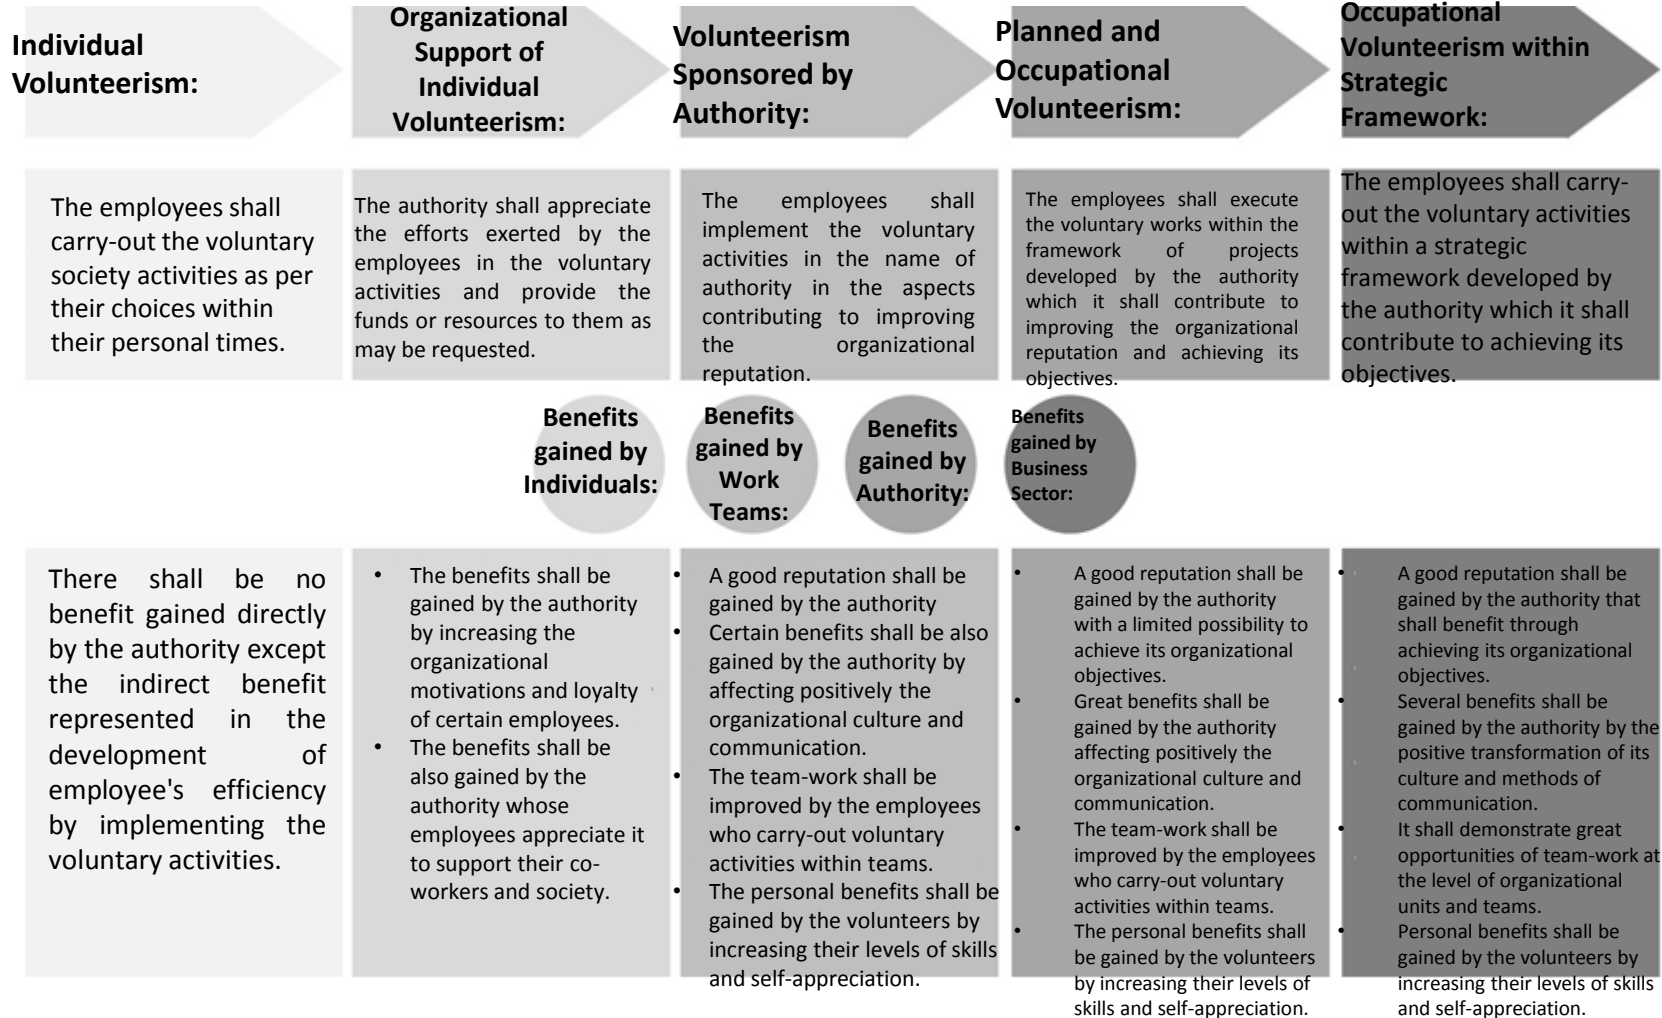

- Establish the principle of solidarity among the members of society.
- Diligence and hard work towards achieving society goals.
- Contribute effectively to achieving the social development by preserving the values and virtues of society and economic development by consolidating the concept of generosity and contributing to establishing the public service organizations such as schools, hospitals and the like .

At the business level

- Optimal investment of resources and possibilities.
- Raise the spirit of teamwork.
- Increase the productivity rates and reducing absenteeism.
- Improve the staff participation and harmony and job well-being.
- Acquire a good corporate reputation and spread the authority awareness of community responsibility which supports the attraction of talents to work for it.
- Benefit from the human competencies and talents in achieving the strategic objectives.

At the individual level

- Strengthen the national belonging.
- Refine skills, knowledge and experiences and acquire new ones.
- Establish the social relations based on the love of giving and giving free of charge.
- Feel the higher level of self-satisfaction and self-fulfillment.

Main Principles of Volunteerism

Principle :1		Voluntary work is deemed as a work done for free.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Demonstrate the authority's commitment and appreciation in relation to the voluntary work approach through its mission, vision, organizational values and behavior of its senior leadership. Explain the benefits to the volunteers in accordance with his motivations to do the volunteer works, for example: Identify the skills necessary to carry out the volunteer works and those that the entity can develop for the volunteers.. Develop and review policies and procedures in such a way as to make the voluntary work as an integral part of the authority's work:
Choice:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The tests; such as psychometric tests and the like that serve the organizational voluntary works, can be used. Identify the candidate's abilities, efficiency and tendencies and making use of his potentials in the available fields of volunteerism. Identify the candidate's contributions in the field of volunteerism.
Learning and Development:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Work on linking the individual development plan with the professional and / or behavioral competencies that the employee can acquire and develop through the voluntary works (e.g. teamwork, communication skills, and the like.) Provide the basic learning and training opportunities as well as specialized opportunities that serve the authority's voluntary works.
Performance Management:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Develop the smart objectives relating to the voluntary work of employees and link them to the authority's performance management system. Identify the voluntary activity objectives and expected outputs and explain the performance measurement criteria to volunteers. Provide the feedbacks to all volunteers to learn about the strengths and development areas of their performance.
Rewards and incentives:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Activate the items relating to the benefits and incentives that encourage the voluntary works such as: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Financial and non-financial rewards (such as certificates of appreciation, publication of the names of excellent volunteers and the like.) Focus on the success stories of volunteers in both inside and outside the authority.
Regular and Official Working Hours:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Apply the flexible working hours, whenever possible, to facilitate the participation in the voluntary activities in a manner that does not affect the efficiency and productivity of government work.
Security, Health and Safety:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Provide a supportive environment to the volunteers including the people with special needs and elderly retirees. Identify and explain the security, health and safety procedures to the volunteers and ensure their compliance with them. Ensure that emergency plans exist in crisis situations and effectively apply them.

Principle :2 Voluntary work is deemed as a work that serves the community.

- Explain how the voluntary role contributes to achieving the authority's mission and organizational objectives which may relate to matters such as:
Environmental cases, society cases, humanitarian cases and national cases

Principle :3 Voluntary work is deemed as a voluntary and non-compulsory work.

- The volunteer shall participate in the design and preparation of voluntary roles so that the authority can identify his tendencies and preferences in terms of the voluntary work and also make use of his great efforts within the time available to him.
- Design and prepare the role so as to ensure some flexibility in the volunteer's work provided that it shall adapt to his lifestyle (if possible). In relation to the volunteerism cases which require volunteers to have a specific period of time such as emergencies, this matter should be clearly reflected in the volunteer's role description card.
- Design and prepare the voluntary roles in a way that allows for the volunteers to develop their abilities and participate in a variety of volunteering opportunities where there is a greater challenge ..

Principle :4 The voluntary work shall support the stability of work environment and shall be also deemed as an incentive for productivity and participation.

- The full-time job is important and necessary to achieve the authority establishment objective and it is important to perform the main competencies and roles assigned to the authority, while the authority shall provide the volunteering opportunities to the volunteers who wish to provide their knowledge, skills and experiences in a manner which is appropriate to the authority needs and serves the society directly.
- The full-time job requires that the budget shall be determined for the appointment of an employee, while the volunteer does not require a similar budget.
- The low performance of full-time employee resulted in the consequences which must be dealt and settled in accordance with the provisions set out in the legislations, while the voluntary work requires compliance and non-violation of the relevant regulations and laws of the country.
- The voluntary work shall be done for limited periods and within a certain number of hours determined by the authorities. In addition and in case the volunteerism is individual, it shall not be carried out during the official and regular working hours
