Launching “Jahiz” initiative to empower talents in the Federal Government and upskill them with Future Skills

To All Ministries and Federal Entities,

The Federal Authority for Government Human Resources (FAHR) extends its greetings and wishes you continued success.

With reference to the Cabinet’s decision to adopt “Jahiz” initiative to empower talents in the Federal Government and upskill them with future skills which aims to:

- Enhance the readiness of federal government employees across all government functional levels.
- Enhance the government entities’ performance, productivity, and readiness for the future.
- Ensure that government leaders and staff are fully ready for the future and are equipped with the necessary future skills.

The Authority is pleased to announce the launch of “Jahiz” Digital Platform which will serve all federal government employees through 2 main tracks that are dedicated to building future skills. The first track focuses on the leadership level, whereas the second one seeks to build employees’ future skills across other functional levels.

Therefore, the Authority will hold introductory workshops for the purpose of introducing the initiative, demonstrating its role, and highlighting its importance in supporting federal government employees and preparing them for the future. The table below includes details about the workshops:

Workshop	Target Audience	Venue	Date	Timing
First Workshop	Human Resources Managers and Training Experts	Virtual	18 November 2022	10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Second Workshop	All government sector employees	Virtual	22 November 2022	10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
First Workshop	All government sector employees	Virtual	25 November 2022	10:00 AM – 11:30 AM

Accordingly, you are kindly requested to nominate 2 employees from your esteemed entity to attend the first workshop and direct the concerned team members to issue an internal circular inviting interested staff to join the remaining workshops.

Best regards,

The Federal Authority for Government Human Resources
