

Circular No (38) for 2016
On launch of Project Management Program in the Federal Government

To: All Independent Federal Entities & Authorities

The Federal Authority for Government Human Resources (FAHR) would like to send you kind regards, wishing you all the success in your endeavors.

Within the framework of the Authority's ongoing efforts to boost the capabilities of the Federal Government employees in the management of priority projects, in order to achieve national agenda targets, in coordination with the Prime Minister's Office and the International Institute of Project Management (IIPM); We are pleased to launch the specialized training program on Project Management.

The program is intended to enhance the project and human resource management skills in an effective and efficient manner, through tailored training courses, and specialized hands-on workshops, followed by examinations to assess the participants' achievements. Certificates will be awarded based on the outcome of assessment by the IIPM, and participants will have the opportunity to apply for regular membership of the Institute and participate in professional project management networks.

You are, therefore, kindly requested to nominate suitable candidates from among directors and officials of initiatives and projects related to national agenda, as the attached nomination form, no later than Thursday, December 08, 2016.

Thank you for your cooperation

Dr. Abdurahman Al Awar,

Director General,
