

Learning Partners

The idea of the E-Learning Partners initiative in the Federal Government is based on the Authority concludes contracts with universities and educational institutions, specialized firms and leading international organizations, to provide expert training and development, leading to professional certification, electronic training courses and programs, and educational materials for Federal Government employees at competitive prices.

The initiative aims to help federal government employees to continuously learn, develop their knowledge, skills and abilities, and enable them to keep pace with the requirements and needs of the global labor market, which are characterized by rapid change, by ensuring that they receive reliable quality electronic training, at any time, and from anywhere in the world.

The following is a list of training institutions and companies under the umbrella of E-Learning Partners initiative, to enable employees of ministries and federal entities can access the websites of these institutions to learn about the courses and e-training programs offered by each institution, as well as an overview of these programs, including the discounts offered:
