Federal Government’s Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct

Enclosed with Cabinet Resolution no. (79) of 2023
Objectives:

1. The Federal Government’s Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct defines the ethical standards to be adhered to by the federal employees in order to maintain public trust, promote integrity, avoid conflict of interests, and protect the reputation of UAE’s government.

2. This Document affirms the shared responsibility to promote a culture of ethics and integrity through cooperation between managers and employees.

Scope of Application:

The code of ethics shall apply to employees of federal entities, which may issue detailed documents of professional conduct and ethics in line with the nature of their work.

Government Employee Model:

Government employees are exemplary role models to be followed for their work ethics, embodiment of positive values, support and inspiration to others, knowledge of local and global changes and developments in a way that enhances competitiveness and performance levels.

Guiding Principles:

The Document is based on ethical principles that promote integrity and professionalism, serve public interest, and provide the basic guidelines for employees’ commitment to work ethics in the federal government as stipulated in the pledge to commit to principles of professional conduct and ethics of the general function attached hereto.

Obligations of Federal Entities:

1. Consolidate institutional values and create a supportive work environment for employees.

2. Raise awareness of the culture and principles of the Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct Document and supervise the implementation and dissemination of this Document among employees, as deemed appropriate by the relevant entity.

3. Inform all the entity’s employees of the Document content and ensure their adherence through electronically signing it.

4. Provide secure channels for reporting conduct that breaches the Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics of the General Function.

5. Investigate of the reported cases while providing privacy and protection for the reporting employees.

6. Impose penalties if an employee is proven to have breached the Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics of the General Function principles mentioned in the Human Resources Law and its regulations as well as relevant laws and legislations.

Employee’s Obligations:

1. Read and adhere to the Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct Document principles.

2. Inform their direct supervisor or the federal entity’s HR Department of any Code violations mentioned in the pledge as soon as they occur or whenever they know of its occurrence.

3. Cooperate when held accountable in accordance with the Federal Government’s approved official procedures and channels, relevant laws, and legislations.

Final Provisions:

1. Employees shall play an important role in preserving their entities’ integrity and reputation by adhering to the Code. Adherence to the Code and immediate reporting of any violations thereof is necessary as it helps maintain the public trust in the government.

2. Cases of non-compliance and violation of the Code shall not be taken lightly and shall be handled seriously by the entity. Therefore, all employees must adhere to the Code and sign the pledge attached hereto.
Pledge to Commit to the Code of Ethics and Professional Conduct

In my capacity as an employee in the Federal Government, I hereby adhere to the following:
